

Stephanie Interiano

Public Relations Specialist

BIOGRAPHY

As a Public Relations Specialist for the City of Los Angeles' Department of Public Works, Interiano is the Spanish-language media and community relations representative for the Public Affairs Office (PAO). She is Editor of the CityWorks newsletter and serves as the Public Works liaison to Council Districts 6 and 14.

Interiano comes to PAO with a background in Spanish-language media and experience in community relations aimed at serving the Latino community in Los Angeles. Prior to joining Public Works, Interiano was the Public Affairs Coordinator for Univision 34, KMEX-TV, and was responsible for the station's community outreach, media sponsorships, and public service campaigns. She began with Univision 34 in 2003 as an intern in the Human Resources Department.

A graduate of Loyola Marymount University, Interiano earned her bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a minor in Sociology in 2004. During her undergraduate studies, she participated in programs across the globe including England, Mexico, and Spain.

She is a resident of the City of Los Angeles, in the 14th Council District. She enjoys playing soccer, hiking and traveling.
